HIGH VOLUME COMMERCIAL CHECKING

Credit against fees - This account features an earnings credit which is applied to reduce or eliminate fees on the account. If the earnings credit exceeds the fees for any period, you will be assessed no fees but you will not be paid, carry forward, or otherwise receive credit for any excess earnings credit.

The earnings credit will be calculated by applying the periodic earnings credit rate to the average daily balance in the account for the period. The average collected balance is calculated by adding the collected principal in the account for each day of the period and dividing by the number of days in the period.

You do not need to maintain any average daily balance during the monthly statement cycle in order to receive the credit.

Earnings credit begins to accrue on the business day you deposit noncash items (for example, checks).

Minimum balance to avoid Service Charge - $5.00 monthly service charge applies unless the Earnings Credit is sufficient to cover the service charge. The Earnings Credit of $.018 credit per $100 Average Daily Balance used to offset service charges. Credit will not be greater than the assessed service charge.
